Q5 TWIN SUPPORT

Restonic's exclusive technology delivers an edge-to-edge sleep surface, maximum adjustability and 5 support zones for correct spinal alignment. Provides deep, individualized comfort over the entire innerspring system.

AlumiLast®

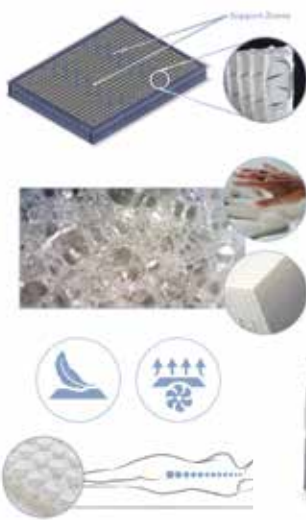

Restonic's proprietary technology infuses aluminum into the cell structure of the foam. Provides a longer comfort life to the surface of the mattress and increased airflow for a cooling, more comfortable sleep.

Cool®

Restonic's exclusive technology for a cooling sleep surface with a softer touch.

MicroCoil

More than 1300 individually wrapped coils providing a supportive surface layer of comfort.
